1971 ARROW
of Woodlan School
R.R. #2
Woodburn, Indiana

IN DEDICATION TO

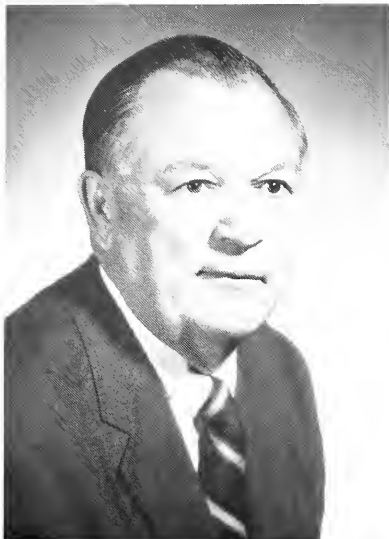

MR. JERRY MILLER

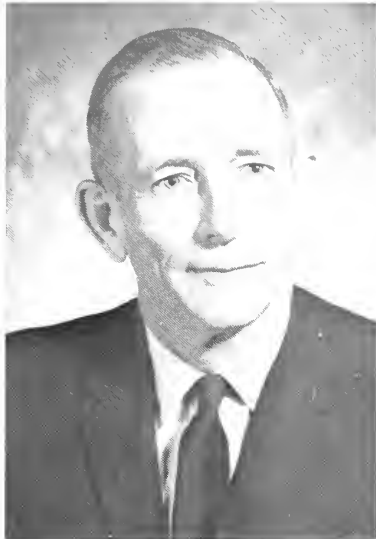

The 1971 Arrow is dedicated to Mr. Miller, because to us he represents all a teacher should be. He is fair, honest, and truthful, yet he manages to retain his great sense of humor. Above all he considers teaching a challenge, not a task, making it enjoyable for both him and the students. We would like to pay tribute to him and wish him the best of luck in the coming years.

Y-Teens

The Y-Teens sponsored several projects this year. One was a dance for the Junior High in April. They set aside a day for Teacher's Appreciation, and the student body was to honor the teachers. On Halloween there was a party given at the Retirement Home for the old people and for Christmas, the Y-Teens had another party at the Children's Home. In the spring dolls were made of life savers and yarn for the Children's Home. The officers for '70-71 are as follows: President--Barb Rich; Vice-President--Renee Watson; Secretary--Rita Watson; and Treasurer--Lori Smith. Their sponsor is Mrs. Sanford.

Three Hi-Y members went to Indianapolis to participate in the Youth and Government Program. Here they were able to be in the State House and Senate to see how state government is run. Charlie Clemens and Mike Meyers were in the House and Jerry Stieglitz was in the Senate. The Hi-Y sponsored a bowling league for all members of their club. They also participated in a basketball league with other schools in Fort Wayne. Their high scorer was Denny Powell. At the end of the season their record was 5 wins and 2 losses. The officers were as follows: President--Jerry Stieglitz; Secretary--Jerald Koenemann; and Treasurer--Dan Foss. Their sponsors are Mr. Delong and Mr. Lake.

CRISCO AWARDS

Crisco awards are given annually to girls in home economics who show traits such as good class attitude, ability, genuine interest in home ec. and a desire to pursue home ec. further. This year the Freshman-Sophomore Award went to Marcia Hartman. The Junior-Senior Award was received by Ava Beachy.

LIBRARIANS

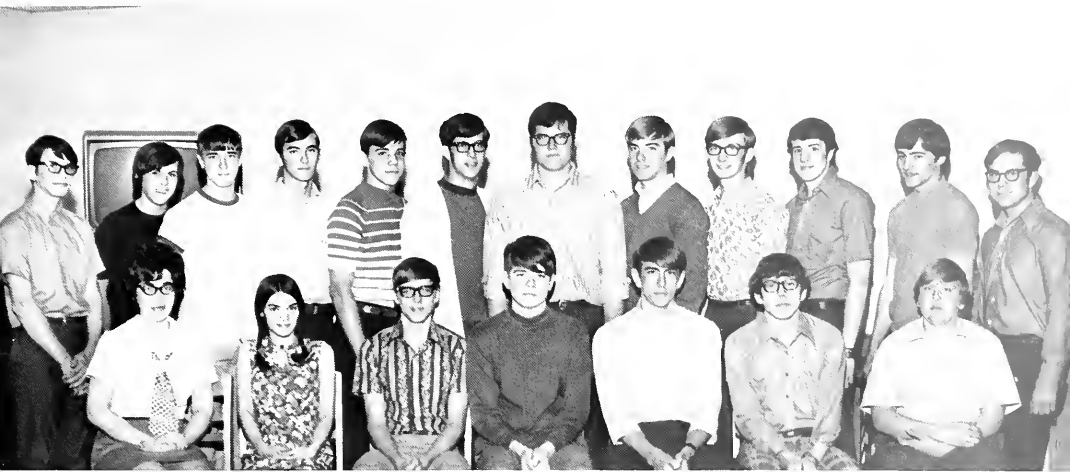

The library is a two-year old addition to the Woodlan school. The main part of the library and the balcony provide a total area of 5,318 square feet.

Easy chairs set off the magazine and newspaper reading area. There are vertical files, film strip previewers, record players, 8-mm film loop machines, and cassette tape recorders to help enhance the usefulness and appeal of the library.

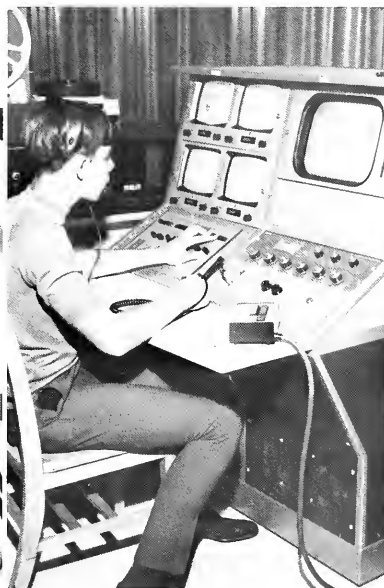

The balcony is for reference work only. It houses all encyclopedias and other books having reference classifications.

The library, which can seat 150 students, is under the supervision of Mrs. Wetter. She is helped out by part-time librarians who are students willing to give up their study halls to help in the library.

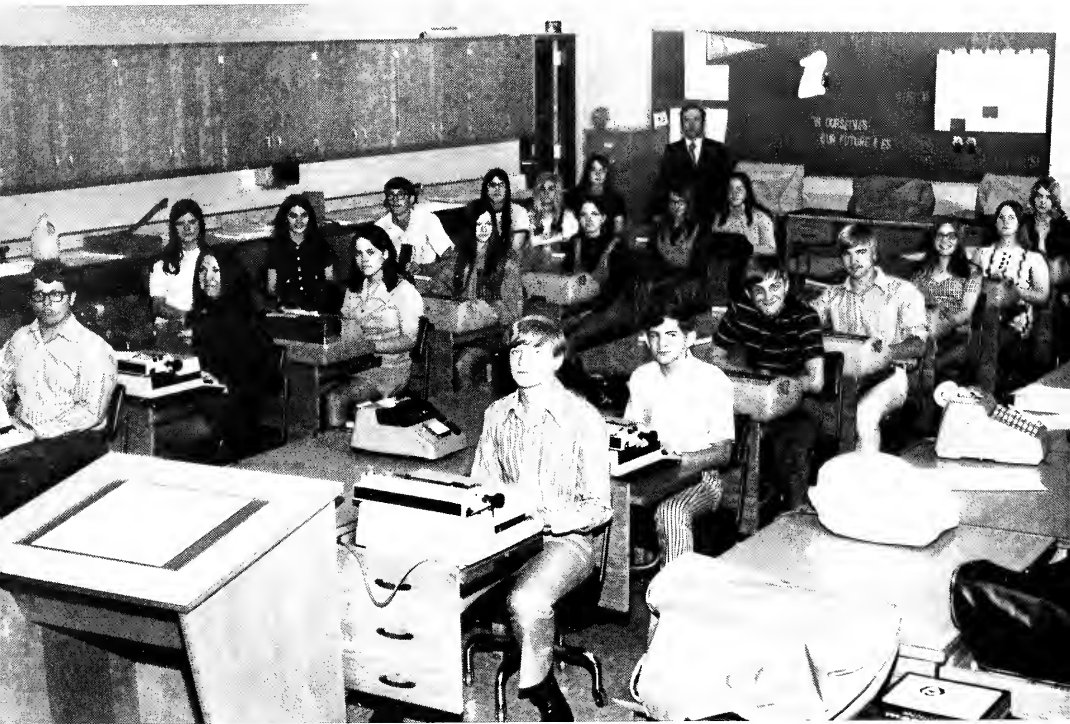

AUDIO VISUAL

The 29' by 28' audio visual room houses the AV equipment in cupboards and provides working space for productions of materials. There is elaborate electronic equipment for video taping and television production and reception. In the studio, three television cameras can film live programs which can be transmitted through any one or all of the 28 teaching stations. This and much more is under the control of Miss Rhinehart.

POW WOW STAFF

The 1970-71 "Pow Wow" staff came out with some brand new ideas and put them into a newspaper with a brand new look. You can expect even more changes to take place next year when the staff will be composed of students from the journalism class that is to be offered to writers with creative ability. Publishing a school newspaper takes more time and effort than a once-a-month meeting can provide for, so in the future the "Pow Wow" should be better than ever. This year Renee Watson headed the staff as editor-in-chief, Dixie Burkdoll aided as news editor, Kathy Kettelman served as feature editor, Jeff Hoepfner carried out the duties of sports editor, and the society page was co-edited by Mary Herber and Angie Hostetler.

Advisor Mr. Sherron with Angie Hostetler.

These are just a few of the cheers you've heard throughout Woodlan's great sports year of '70-'71. Our cheerleaders are just some of the people in our student body who kept the school spirit going in our basketball and football games. These cheerleaders deserve a vote of thanks for a job well done. The following are the football cheerleaders from left to right: Karol Herber, Carolyn Meyer, and Carolyn Moser. On the very top is Sally Nelson, and below her is Joyce Kammeyer. The varsity basketball cheerleaders from left to right are Linda Hockemeyer, Sandy Gerbers, Martha Knoblauch, and Joyce Salzbrenner above Sandy.

CHEER LEADERS

WOODLAN

During the basketball season a group of girls decorated everything in sight; this included Woodlan, Woodburn, and Harlan. This group is better known as the Spirit Committee. Under the guidance of Mrs. Gilbert the girls kept "right on" all year. The Spirit Committee is made up of Seniors Kathy Doehrmann, Janine Lortie, Debbie Grant, and Rosalie Werling; Juniors Jan Bauer, Debbie Brunson, Diane Kees, and Cheri Shanebrook; Sophomores Sybil Anderson, Vicki Hadley, and Georgianna West; and Freshmen Sandy Brunson, Marcia Kees, and Trudy Knapp. Rosalie and Cheri were elected to be "chairwomen" of the group. Because of their efforts the spirit at Woodlan was greatly improved.

There is a lot of credit due to the mascots, too. Joe Warner backed the football team while Wade Stoller backed the Warriors at the basketball games.

SAFARI

STEW

The 1970-1971 Homecoming for the Woodlan Warriors on October 23, 1970 turned out to be a great big success. The homecoming theme chosen by the Student Council; was "A Warrior Safari." The theme was very appropriate since the Warriors faced the Leo Lions. The Senior float, "Put The Lions In A Stew," was judged as being the best float present. The Juniors' float, "No Lions! We're Number 1" -- was judged second best. The Frosh had a real good showing and placed third with their float -- "Spear Those Cowardly Lions." The Warriors took the Seniors' advice and really put the Lions in a stew by beating them by a score of 19 to 0.

That night was a memorable night for Miss Sandy Gerbers, too. Sandy was crowned as the 1970-1971 homecoming queen. Last year's queen, Miss Nancy Delagrange, managed to get away from her studies at Franklin University to be present to crown Sandy as homecoming queen. Linda Burrier and Angie Hostetler were chosen to be the Senior attendants in the homecoming court. The Juniors chose two girls to be junior attendants in Sandy's court, too. The Junior attendants were Joyce Salzbrenner and Susan Unsicker.

Varsity

The 1970-1971 Woodlan football team, under the close instructions of Coach Etzler and Coach Delong, ended up with a great season record of 8-0-1. For their efforts, the Warriors gained Half of the championship title of the ACAC football conference.

Coach Etzler has had six teams that he could really be proud of. In the past six years Coach Etzler has led the Warriors to 46 wins, four defeats, and four ties. Any coach should be proud of a record like this!!

The co-captains were a lot of help to the coaches, too. The '70 football team co-captains were Steve David and George Nietert.

Our "camera shy" boys get a pep talk from Mr. Strautman and his assistant, Mr. Lake.

AND FRESHMEN

Honoring of Parents

The evening of our last home game was the time selected to add a unique touch to the basketball season. It was on this special night that our tribe honored the Warrior parents, by giving them deserved recognition, a flower for affection, and a great big "thank you" for their many unselfish hours of encouragement and support. Mr. Strautman and Mr. Lake honored their wives, too. The parents and wives play an important role in boosting morale, for it is they who install faith and impart words of comfort and praise.

This performance was to show deep appreciation to those who were asked to give much and sacrificed even more. After all, without the approval, patience, co-operation, and backing from the families, there would be no Woodlan Warriors.

VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team began the season with a slow and unimpressive start, losing their first 6 games. But as the season neared the end, the Woodlan Spikers put things together and won one of the final two games.

They then entered the IHSAA (Indiana High School Athletic Association) State Volleyball Tourney, and from a beginning field of 38, the Warriors finished with an outstanding 4th place.

Ed Steury was elected to All-Conference Second Team; Jerry Stieglitz was elected to All-Conference First Team.

Jerry also became the first Warrior to be named to the IHSAA All State First Team.

WRESTLING

A new sport was introduced to the Warriors this year, along with a "heavy" new coach, Jim Dupont. Woodlan's first wrestling team was muscled by six freshmen, two sophomores, three juniors, and one senior, who fought their way to a 4--4 season count. Joe M. won all of his bouts by pin. Kerry also was undefeated, and contended in the finals of sectional action. Duane made it to the semi-finals. In addition, Kerry set a 23 second record for the fastest pin, and Jeff followed at 27. By efforts of all, our touch team finished second in the Home-stead Tourney. Varsity records (wins, losses, and draws, respectively) were as follows: Chris H. 6--4, Doug B. 4--4, Alan S. 2--4, Jeff R. 4--4, Dennis E. 3--6--1, Craig H. 4--5--1, Duane G. 4--1--1, Scott F. 1--8, Joe M. 10--0, Joe W. 6--2, Kerry R. 10--0.
